HOLMDEL RESIDENT TO RECEIVE PRESTIGIOUS FELLOWSHIP AWARD FROM THE ACADEMY OF GENERAL DENTISTRY

Dipika T. Shah, DDS, of Holmdel, NJ is one of a select group of dentists nationwide to receive the Academy of General Dentistry's (AGD) prestigious Fellowship award during the Academy's annual meeting held on July 22. As a fellow of the Academy of General Dentistry, the Academy's members have recognized Dr. Shah as a leader who is committed to life-long learning and excellence in patient care. The Fellowship award symbolizes the professional responsibility of general dentists to remain current in their profession. To achieve this award, Dr. Shah achieved above average score on a comprehensive written exam and a minimum of 500 hours of quality continuing dental education.

Holmdel dentist receives prestigious award

Dipika T. Shah, D.D.S., of Holmdel received the Academy of General Dentistry's (AGD) "Fellowship Award" during the academy's annual meeting in July.

She was recognized as a leader committed to lifelong learning and excellence in patient care. She achieved an above-average score on a written exam, and completed a minimum of 500 hours of continuing dental education.

She is a graduate of New York University School of Dentistry, and has practiced for 19 years in Holmdel. She is also a member of the American Dental Association, as well as vice president of Monmouth Ocean County Dental Society. She lives with her husband, Tushar, and her children, Neel and Niral, in Holmdel.

The AGD is a nonprofit organization of 36,000 general dentists from the United States, its territories and Canada. Members are required to take 75 hours of continuing dental education every three years, and Dr. Shah has completed more than 500 hours within the last five years.
